

POLICY NAME:	221.01: Proper Signification of Earned and Honorary Degrees
EFFECTIVE:	03-27-08
SUPERSEDES:
SOURCE:	New
CROSS REFERENCE:

Neither the Department of Postsecondary Education, nor any college, institution, department, division or office shall publish in any catalogue, advertisement, tract, listing, statement or other paper, or in any lecture, presentation, representation, website, or any tangible, photographic, magnetic, or electronic media, any prefix, suffix, or other reference associating an academic degree with any person, other than the following:

- A. An earned degree, granted such person by a duly accredited institution, or
- B. An honorary degree that is clearly designated as such by immediate juxtaposition of the word "Honorary" with any prefix, suffix or other reference to such honorary degree.