

ACT CENTERS

What is an ACT Center®?

An ACT Center is a computer-based test center. Each ACT Center site delivers licensure and certification tests in computer-based format for postsecondary students and the general public. Centers are professionally staffed and adhere to the highest industry standards for test security and service.

Alabama ACT Center Locations

Bishop State Community College

Calhoun Community College

Jefferson State Community College

Millbrook Office Support and Training Center

For more information on ACT, visit the ACT website, www.act.org.